SIX INJURED IN CAR CHASE

MINDEN — The driver of a 1965 Buick which suffered $2000 damage in a collision on South Water Street in Minden early Saturday morning, has been charged by police with dangerous driving and careless driving. OPP Constable Barry Connelly was called to Nesbitt's Texaco Service Centre to investigate a disturbance. When he arrived six youths sped off with the constable in pursuit. Their car went out of control entered the south ditch striking a hydro pole and fire hydrant and rolled over. Two passengers and James Fitzpatrick 25, of Richmond Hill and James Elder 24, of Mississauga suffered major injuries and were taken to Ross Memorial hospital in Lindsay. The driver Ronald Hall 21, of Richmond Hill, and the other passenger in the car were treated for minor injuries at Minden's Red Cross hospital.

Sam LaBarge wins Execuvan at Carnival

HALIBURTON — Sam and Mildred LaBarge of Minden are the happy owners of this beautiful 1978 Ford Execuvan which they won in the Haliburton Rotary Carnival draw last Thursday. Sam, standing beside his new $13,000 van, at first thought the Rotarian who phoned him was pulling his leg and almost hung-up the phone. However his ticket, number 436 was the winner. The van was supplied by LaTuc Motor Sales of Haliburton and is complete with all the luxuries a person could ask for. Some of these are, air-conditioning, stereo, a frig, swivel seats, carpeting and it also sleeps two. Congratulations Sam.

Two County municipalities share $71,141 OHRP grant HALIBURTON — Grants totalling $495,842 under the Ontario Home Renewal Program (OHRP) have been allocated to 15 municipalities, Housing Minister Claude Bennett announced last week. Two of them go to Haliburton municipalities of Anson, Hindon and Minden and Dysart et al. They are for $31,141 and $40,000 respectively.

OHRP provides per capita grants to Ontario municipalities to administer directly as loans to homeowners occupants to repair their houses to an acceptable municipal minimum standard.

The grants announced last week represent various portions of the total 1978-79 funding designated under OHRP for each municipality.

The prime objective of the program is the correction of faulty structural and sanitary conditions and the upgrading of plumbing, heating, insulation and electrical systems of the owner occupants home.

"OHRP is directly oriented to low and moderate income homeowners with a maximum annual income of $12,500 Bennett said."

$10,000 winner at Stedmans

On Saturday, August 5th, Mr. Pat Benoliel of Toronto introduced himself to Jerry Pillsworth, owner of Stedmans in Minden, with the pleasant news that his Wintario ticket purchased at the store was a big $10,000 winner in last Thursday's draw.

Mr. Benoliel, from Toronto has a cottage on Koshlong Lake. This totals three big winners that have purchased tickets at Stedmans Store in Minden in the past two years. All three of them being $10,000 winners! Congratulations.

Trent Severn Waterways news on water control Rainfalls varying between 9 and 25mm were reported for July 21-22 over the watersheds of the Trent Severn Waterways. This helped most lake levels and resulted in the net loss from the Kawarthas for the week being very small. Flows were reduced correspondingly from the reservoirs.

The storage remaining on July 24 stood at 79.9 percent in the reservoirs, down only 3.8 from the last week. This loss should be reduced a little more with reservoir flows on July 27 of only 13.6 cubic metres per second and 4.7 cubic metres per second from the Gull, Burnt, respectively. Last year on July 25, the storage remaining totalled only 58.5 percent of maximum.

Rainfall and dull, cloudy, humid weather have temporarily helped to reduce the losses along the whole system but rain is still desperately needed between Peterborough and Toronto.

Rainfall was recorded at about 18mm in Haliburton and at Washago on July 27 and has helped

Mrs. Walker had fed Derek around midnight and put him back to bed.

July produced fine summer weather, warm at times but very pleasant. Average was only half a degree lower than last July. Rainfall was average, at Minden only, the remainder of the county was below. Reason for this was the very heavy local rainstorm we had on July 8 when almost 2 inches fell in two 1 hour showers.

Briefs on the econo —my Dian Cohen, Sunday Star, June 4, 1978: "... Ottawa has finally acknowledged that if it consistently spends more than the taxpayers can readily contribute to the federal pot, the stage is set for more inflation than would otherwise exist. What we will have to do is be much more aware of what we are buying for our tax dollars: Medicare, hospitalization, education, old-age security, public pensions, guaranteed income supplements are not free. We pay for them in the part of our pay cheques we don't take home. We have to include them in our personal budgets along with the cars and TV sets we buy directly."

Tunka the Magician a big hit

Thinking Slim

BY JEAN NIDETCH

Can you believe the cost of air travel these days? Why, for little more than you'd spend for a weekend in the country, you can go half way around the world!

As a matter of fact, that's just where I'm headed in a few weeks — to Australia and New Zealand, two of my favorite countries.

It's miraculous how little time it takes to fly those thousands of miles between here and there. On the other hand, you're actually spending a day (at least) in the air. Not just a normal day with three meals, either (you knew I'd get around to food!), but one with extra snacks and goodies because the airline wants to keep you well fed and content.

Well, I've been at goal weight for so long and my new eating habits are so much a part of me, eating in the air doesn't pose the problem it might to the person striving to rid his or her fuselage of extra baggage!

Being held captive in the clouds surrounded by canapes, cocktails, even those cardboard brownies, can be a brutal test (and when you love food as much as you and I do, even cardboard brownies look good!).

Still, my friend, there's a way to deal with the situation without going off your weight-control program.

First of all, most airlines provide "diet" food on request. It may be cottage cheese, carrot sticks and some melba toast, but that's certainly better than the soggy mashed potatoes and fried who-knows-what the man next to you is eating.

That takes care of main courses. As for the extras, ask the stewardess not to serve you the mid-morning or late night snack. A glass of tomato juice with a twist of lemon or some hot tea will do nicely, if she'd be so kind.

If you're afraid you won't be able to say no when the snacks come tripping down the aisle and end up on both sides of you because you've got the middle seat, excuse yourself and stand in the back of the plane for awhile. If the crew insists you stay seated, keep yourself occupied with needlepoint, a magnetic word game, a book of crossword puzzles or just a good novel to keep you occupied at snack time in particular.

Two identical vehicles are in collision near Grass Lake MINDEN — Three people were injured, one seriously when two identical black, 1978 Pontiac Trans Ams collided near the crest of a hill on Cty. Rd. 15 near Grass Lake Rd. at 3:15 Sunday.

Cathy Agnew 21, of Wilberforce, a passenger in one of the cars suffered major injuries and was taken to Haliburton hospital. Gary J. Casey 22, of Wilberforce the driver and Thomas D. Horton 22 of Agincourt the other driver both received minor injuries in the crash.

Casey has been charged by police with failing to wear a seat belt and Horton has been charged with driving left of centre. Both vehicles suffered $2000 in damages. — PC Barry Connelly.

THIS IS one shark that didn't get away. Deep sea fishermen have been having a Moby Dick-of-a-time this summer trying to haul in 300- to 1,000-pounders. This one is a pussy cat — it's an eight-foot sand tiger shark, one of three on view at the New York Aquarium.

Ask Alma

Dear Alma:

I am a 13-year-old boy and my sister is 9. Up until a year or so ago, we paraded around the house without clothes on, but now I want my privacy.

My sister still barges into the bathroom or my bedroom without asking and just giggles when I holler at her. When I complain to my parents they always take her side and ask me, "What do you have to hide?"

I really can't stand the situation and am honestly thinking about running away from home. — Eddie Dear Eddie:

I hope you're still at home to read this answer and work out the problem.

The key to handling your sister is to understand that she gets a kick out of making you angry. If you'd just ask her to leave without hollering at her, you'll be taking the fun out of the scene and she'll get bored.

Next step: Every bathroom door has a lock on it.
Use it. If there isn't a lock on your bedroom door, buy one. A hook and eye is inexpensive and easy to install.

You have the right to your privacy even if you have to enforce it on your own.

Dear Alma:

Your advice to "Don't use my name" is absurd.
You wrote: "You're entitled to your feelings but don't pass judgment on any human being."

The day I go to the polls to vote requires all the judgment I can muster together in order to cast an intelligent ballot. Also, when I select a doctor, dentist or sitter for my family I better judge these people well.

Boo to your advice. I hope I have convinced you otherwise. — Reading you in Silver Spring, Md.
Dear Reading:

No way, Jose!
Webster knew nine definitions for the word "judge." To save you the trial of looking them up, here are two:

"To sit in judgment upon; to try ..."

"To form an opinion about through careful weighing of evidence and testing of premises ..."

I meant it the first way.
You took it the second way.
Now look up "nit-picking."

Hartwick, Newell combine to defeat Hal. Legionnaires MINDEN — Title hopes for the Haliburton Legionnaires are just a flicker now, following the Minden Merchants 3-1 victory over the cocky ball club last Thursday evening in Minden.

The Legionnaires had been riding atop the league for many weeks on the strength of 11 straight wins but with the loss to Minden and Bobcaygeon Blue Jay's victory over Beaverton, they are now in second with 28 points with Blue Jays on top at 30.
Each team has one game left, Haliburton against Lindsay Merchants at home and Blue Jays against Woodville at home. The edge has to go to the Bob-caygeon team to win the league championship as they haven't lost to Woodville all season.

There's nothing like experience and in the person of Gene Newell, that experience is abundant.
After Craig Stamp of the Legionnaires had walked lead off batter Jack Snell and Larry Kent was safe on a fine bunt single, Gene smashed Stamp's first pitch to deep centre to score both runners and break a 1-1 tie to give Minden the win.

However, star of the game had to go to Rick Hartwick. He tossed a two-hitter at the Legionnaires to pick up the win but more important was his season high of 15 strikeouts. He also walked five batters. Rick also got the games first run on a towering homer to right field in the third inning.

Haliburton tied the game in the fourth when Minden committed two errors and Hartwick walked two batters. Craig Stamp suffered the loss, his first of the season, giving up three runs, all earned, on five hits, walked two and fanned ten.

Canadian Comment

BY PETER WARD

OTTAWA (SF) — One of the greatest dangers during the coming months is that the country will become bogged down in discussing details of the legislative proposals Prime Minister Trudeau has made for changing the Canadian constitution.
Fight about the detail, and the philosophy behind the package, may become accepted by implication.
That philosophy represents deep basic change to the national fabric of the nation which most Canadians do not want.

During the past 10 years, more and more lawyers from the Quebec bar have joined the federal justice department to work in the drafting of legislation. The background of those men is rooted in the civil code of Quebec, which comes from the republican Napoleonic Code. Canada lives under British common law coast to coast for criminal matters, and civil common law for all provinces save Quebec.

Basic difference between Napoleonic codified law and common law is great.
Under common law, individuals are presumed to have all rights which are not specifically taken away from them by law. You can't hatchet your neighbor, for example, because the law says you can't.

Codified law, on the other hand, presumes no rights for the citizen, except those specifically conferred by law. There's no flexibility and the system involves extremely complex legislation with matching bureaucratic structures to administer the letter of the law.
The spirit of the law becomes much less important.

Critics of the government in Ottawa, some of them senior Liberals, I might add, point to the fact that the complex structures of codified law are already appearing in our legislation, creating enormous difficulties in administration.
The ultimate example of this is the draft legislation put forward by the prime minister for constitutional reform. It's a nightmare, because of the detail. For critics to attack constitutional proposals on the basis of those details would obscure the fact that deep and fundamental change for Canada is intended in this document.
